

Archaeological cultural heritage, tourism and territorial development:

conflicts, strategies, solutions and management

ITER
ROMA
NVM
Heritage & Cities

Antonio Barone

INTERNATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF THE PHOENICIANS'
ROUTE. CULTURAL ROUTE OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE
DIRECTOR

Friday 4th October

12:00. 3rd Round Table: Archaeological cultural heritage, tourism and territorial development: Solutions and Management

Italy

Expert in cultural Routes, is Director of the Phoenicians' Route, Mediterranean Cultural Route of the Council of Europe.

Furthermore, he has provided his expertise on the topic of the Cultural Routes to other projects, such as Iter Vitis- Les Chemines de la Vigne, Aromas - Itinerarium Salutis, European Paganini Route, Longobard Ways, contributing to the certification of many of these.

He was also Representative of the Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe (2010-2012).

He works in many territorial projects at international level, in responsible, creative, regenerative tourism.

He cooperates with many organizations (ICOM, OECD and others) and many universities in different countries (especially with Bologna University - Rimini Campus - Tourism and Geography Chair, contributing to the module on Cultural Routes).

Expert also in lifelong learning, heritage pedagogy. Among the publications: Religious tourism and development, Rural tourism handbook, Public Archeology and Tourism, Museum therapy and innovation in cultural tourism.