Aitor Martínez Valdajos holds a Bachelor's degree in Art History (University of Oviedo), a Master's degree in Museology and Museums (University of Alcalá de Henares), and a Master's degree in Cultural Management (joint program between Universitat Oberta de Catalunya and Universitat de Girona).

He has worked as a museum educator in the facilities of the Municipal Museum Network of Gijón/Xixón and as a teacher offering courses for adults in the field of History, Art, and Heritage programming at the Popular University of Gijón/Xixón.

Additionally, he has worked as an independent professional in the cultural tourism sector in Paris (France).

Since 2016, he has been working as the Director of Programs in the Department of Museums at the Municipal Foundation of Culture, Education, and Popular University of Gijón/Xixón. In this role, he has been responsible for programming, managing, and coordinating exhibition projects, as well as other cultural projects for the city.

Currently, since September 2023, he is the Director of the Municipal Foundation of Culture, Education, and Popular University of Gijón/Xixón.
