

Archaeological cultural heritage, tourism and territorial development: conflicts, strategies, solutions and management

ITER
ROMA
NVM
Heritage & Cities

Nekbet Corpas

MARGARITA SALAS POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCHER.
COMPLUTENSE UNIVERSITY OF MADRID

Thursday 3th October

12:15 h. 1st Round Table. Archaeological and Cultural Heritage, Tourism and Territorial Development: Conflicts.

Keynote Speaker: "Thinking through conflicts in archaeological heritage: the role of tourism"

Spain

necorpas@ucm.es

Nekbet Corpas holds a Ph.D. in History and Archaeology from the Complutense University of Madrid (2021) and is specialized in archaeological heritage and museums (University of Cambridge 2016) and mediation and conflict management (Complutense University of Madrid 2018).

She is currently a Margarita Salas postdoctoral researcher at the Complutense University of Madrid (UE Next Generation Funds) and a visiting researcher at the Institute of History of the Spanish National Research Council (CSIC).

Her work has focused on the management of archaeological heritage, specifically on participatory processes and disputes involving this heritage, as well as World Heritage.

She has participated in over thirty specialized congresses and is the author of various works on these topics in scientific publications.